

2015 BLUEGRASS K-9 NARCOTICS TRIALS

Friday – Monday
October 2 – 5, 2015
Mt. Sterling, KY

Police K-9 teams from across Kentucky will gather in Mt. Sterling for the 2015 Bluegrass K-9 Narcotics Trials. For four days, the dogs and their handlers will train and compete on their ability to detect drugs and patrol scenarios. Certification is available from the National Narcotic Detector Dog Association (NNDDA). Entry Fee for event is $50.00. For registration information please contact Robin Acciardo at (859)745-3119.

For more information please contact K-9 Handlers:
Deputy Tommy Parker (859)404-7220
Patrol Captain Kim Kipp (606) 875-5042

Sponsored by Montgomery County Sheriff's Department and the US Forest Service.

